DEDICATION

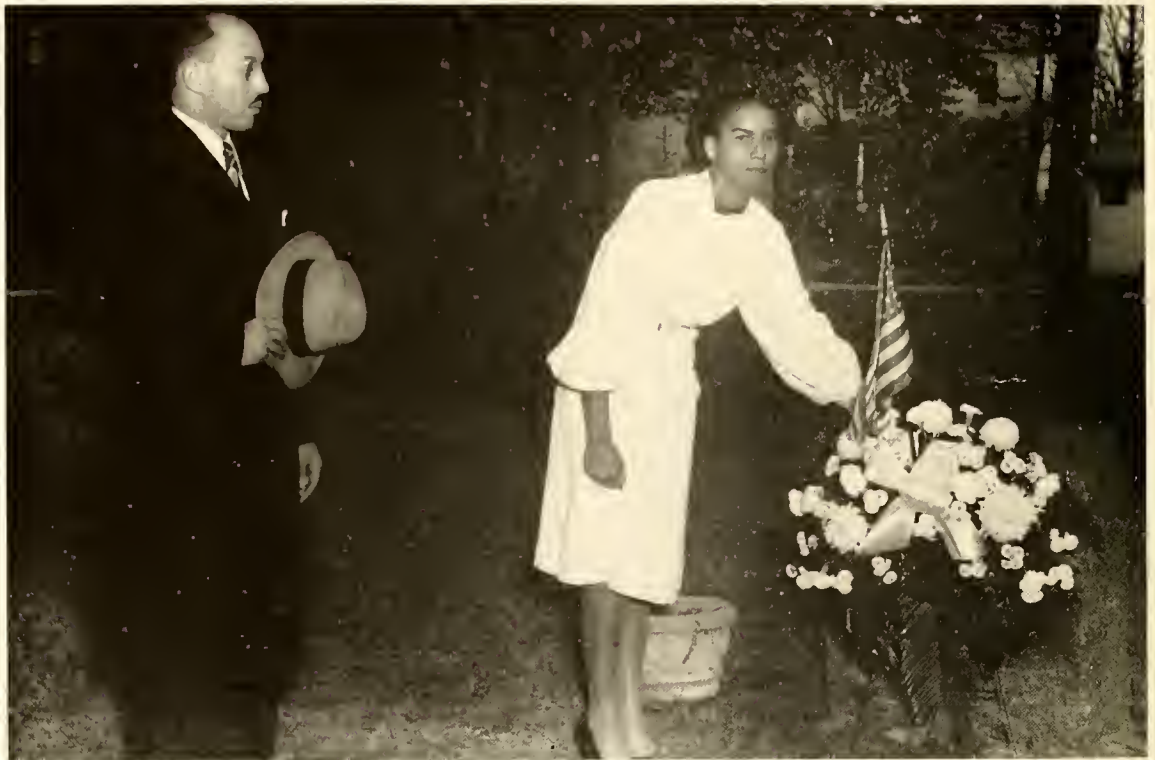

With deep gratitude we, the members of THE SENIOR CLASS dedicate this volume to Coach Howard K. Wilson. Whose friendly smile and kindly heart is an encouragement to all, whose genuine interest and enthusiasm, an inspiration, and whose willing coöperation and versatile talents, an incentive to greater accomplishments.

FOUNDER'S DAY

Founder's Day Exercises were held Friday, November 21, when the 82nd anniversary of Shaw was observed. Miss Milta Davis, Senior student, is shown placing a wreath on the grave of Dr. Henry Martin Tupper, founder and first president of the institution. Mr. Thomas J. Boyd, president of the Student Body, looks on in reverence.

OUR PRESIDENT

DR. ROBERT P. DANIEL, PH.D.

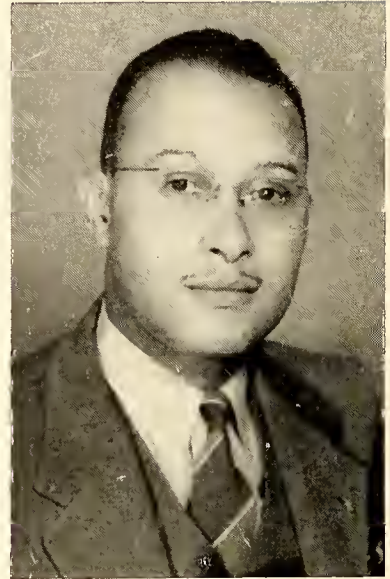

From a tradition of sacrifice and service, Shaw University is dedicated to the task of training for wholesome living and constructive participation in the development of racial progress and community welfare. May the graduates of 1948 join the thousands who have gone before them to be worthy sons and daughters of this institution dedicated to high ideals and standards.

ROBERT P. DANIEL, President.

HISTORY

CLASS OF '48

On a rainy afternoon in the fall of '44 one hundred eighty-five innocent freshmen began their sojourn at Shaw University. Of that number approximately two-thirds were women, Uncle Sam had already claimed the majority of the prospective male students. The perils of the first week were survived and we finally attempted to settle down to the normal routine of college life.

Under the able and capable leadership of Mr. Thomas J. Boyd and the helpful advice of Mr. C. A. Jones the class took an active part in the activities of the campus. The class was represented in the student council by Miss Margaret Saunders and Miss Vanzola Bond. Mr. George Smith, Andrew Meadows, David King, and Courtney Brown represented us on the Men's Basketball, while Arimenthia Forrist, Flora Dickerson, and Milta Davis represented on the Girl's team.

At the close of the first semester, the class had become an accepted portion of the Shaw family, and ten had merited grades that placed them on the honor roll.

The second semester began and soon the campus blossomed and grew fresh and beautiful in the warm sunshine and showers of spring. Our quick strides across the campus began to slacken and we relaxed, taking on the traditional stroll of the "college student." One of the most interesting features of the second semester was "Open House." The opportunity to visit each room in the other dormitories and to see how our fellow students lived was an enlightening experience. Exam week comprised another interesting experience which closed our first year.

Our sophomore year began again under the capable leadership of Mr. Boyd with hearty greetings to returning schoolmates and playful tricks on freshmen. We lost several of our male students to the service, but before the year was up we knew that we would not have to suffer any more such losses, because a wonderful thing happened—the war ended in Europe.

During our junior year we contributed three members to Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society: Vanzola Bond, B. Gwendolyn Larkins, and Thelma A. Gumbs. Misses Larkins and Gumbs were also elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities, along with Thomas J. Boyd. Largely through the efforts of Mr. Shade Connor, class president, the class entertained the seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Reception, which left them with memories that we hope they will always cherish.

Now in our senior year our matriculation is fast coming to a close. We leave with fond memories of our teachers, who have guided and promoted our growth and development into what we hope are worthwhile personalities. We have made friends; friends always to be remembered. We have formed attachments borne out of sadness as well as happiness, out of joys as well as griefs and sometimes even out of tears as well as smiles. Attachments that will go on through the years encouraging and inspiring us greater heights to reach and nobler deeds to achieve to the honor and glory of our Alma Mater.

CLASS POEM

We travelers,
Whose feet are turned today
Toward unknown ways of Life's paths,
Have sojourned long in learning's spacious home
And inspiration gained.

On wisdom's face
In admiration we have gained.
Of higher goals we have bravely dreamed
And planned our life, filled with good deeds.
Now comes the challenge to our eager youth;
Our work for a time is ended; we must go
Forth to the new and leave the past behind
To seek what lies beyond.

With fearless hearts
We seek adventure, but first,
A message we leave to you, our friends,
Who made penetrable the road to learning,
And gave of us your wise counsel.
Our thanks are sincere for many things but most
For this: your faith in us was never lost;
And when you had reason to doubt, you smiled.

Our task today,
Is to justify your faith
And prove our virtue, so, when in years to come,
And you still recall our names,
You'll think of us as ones who tried
Always to do their very best.
To classmates dear, if we shall meet no more
As in the past, our gay and noble thoughts
Shall hold communion across the years;
In sympathy shall our hearts beat
And ties that bind us closely shall endure forever.

To those we leave behind, keep with you,
Our kindest thoughts, and wish us Godspeed
As now, with true regret, but lofty hopes
We say farewell.

ARLETHA WHITE,
BERNICE WRIGHT,
ETHEL HAYES.

CLASS SONG

Tune—"Londonderry Air"

1

Dear Old Shaw U., Thou who has made us strong;
Hast willed us courage, guided us from wrong
Who nourished us, and fulfilled all our greatest needs,
We sing to you, fruit of long planted seeds.
We'll ne'er forget your halls and campus plains
Your lofty bell, whose tones sweetly proclaim
We'll always cherish aspects of your creed
Lest we forget, lest we forget thy deeds.

2

Dear Old Shaw U., praise we give to thee, to thee
To echo now and through eternity
For serving mankind, here and everywhere
And others who seek love and tender care
With grateful hearts we reverence those who paved the way.
For us to share thy blessings from day to day
May we forever faithful, true and loyal be
To you, dear Old Shaw University.

3

Dear Old Shaw U., Thou who hast made us strong
Hast willed us courage, guided us from wrong
We sing to you, with all our might and spirit great
As one, the humble Class of Forty-Eight
May God guide you, comfort and your keeper be
Till tasks are done; and all men honor Thee.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Shaw University, 1948, about to pass from these halls of learning, being in full possession of our mental capacities and without restraint, do hereby make and publish this last will and testament. We transmit our various school day possessions to persons hereinafter mentioned, to be retained by them throughout their association with Shaw University.

ARTICLE I

To the benevolent citizens of Raleigh, we leave our sincerest thanks for their cooperation with us in our varied endeavors during our stay in this city.

ARTICLE II

To the Board of Trustees, the President, and the Administration of this marvelous school, we leave our best wishes for continued success in making Shaw University a bigger and better school.

ARTICLE III

To the Dean of Women we leave a vote of thanks for her untiring efforts to help us overcome our many difficulties.

ARTICLE IV

To the Proctor of Men, we bequeath "additional" patience and strength in his attempt to instill within the men higher principles of manhood.

ARTICLE V

To the entire faculty and Staff of this Institution we leave many thanks for their conscientious efforts in preparing us for better citizens.

ARTICLE VI

To the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, we bequeath the use of the new chapel which we were fortunate enough to see erected, but unable to attend.

ARTICLE VII

1. Merdis Jenkins wills her ability to keep a steady boy friend to Ledonia Smith.
2. Mattie Dunn wills to Argerie Forte her seat in General Methods.
3. Phillis Tahourne leaves her most comfortable room on Person Street to Miss Mary Lee Royals.
4. Vivian Whitaker wills her excessive height to Gladys Pierce.
5. To her sister Margaret, Gwendolyn Larkin leaves her ability to accept and perform numerous club responsibilities and above all, promptness in attending University Choral rehearsals.
6. To the Reverend Mr. E. Burns Turner, Oscar Burson wills the Presidency of the Theological Fraternity, hoping that he will not be too much of a dictator.
7. To Mary Lou Lindsey, Lillie Owens wills her smiles.
8. To Ellen Kelly, Annie Spruill leaves her ability to sew so that she might make all her draped dresses.
9. To Helen Lewis, Eva Thomas wills her quiet and dignified air.

PROPHECY

Scene: An elaborate lounging room in New York City, N. Y. belonging to the former

Miss Colleen Lorene Harris of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Misses Clementine Elizabeth Savage, history teacher at N. Y. University, Collen L. Harris, Instructor in the same University, and Christine Josenelle Watson, Dean of Women at the same University, are seated in comfortable chairs around the radio. Softly and sweetly a tune comes forth. My, its "Stardust." The news broadcaster begins:

"Station SHAW. Shaw has always won. Now we will listen to the News of today, May 30, 1959. Up to the present, only two women Social workers have been able to secure Ph.D. degrees in Sociology. They are: Mrs. Mary Lawe Sheehy, formerly of New York City, N. Y., whose work covers the entire eastern portion of the United States. Mrs. Sheehy has discovered and almost abolished the essence of poverty in these states. The eastern states feel very thankful towards Mrs. Sheehy; and the former Miss Rosa Lee Russel of Lima, Ohio. The former Miss Russel has done an excellent job in establishing Y.W.C.A. Organizations throughout the central United States. The central United States feel indebted to Miss Russel, and even though she feels her duty is at home with her husband and two sons, they are still fighting to keep her. Important news just came in concerning four other social workers: Mr. Curtis Lee Anderson, Mrs. Olivia Cheek Jones and Mr. Solomon Revis. The three named are doing excellent work in the districts of western United States. It is rumored that Miss Nora Willias Buckner is replacing the former Miss Russel."

"Now we will turn our attention to the advancements being made in the field of Science. Underwood's Hospital, named for its founder and owner, Mr. Charles Thaddeus Underwood, is now undergoing a tremendous change in its program. A new building has been erected for students interested in going directly into the field of medicine from High School. The teacher here is Miss Minnie Lee Wilson. Dr. Shade Connor, one of the leading doctors at the Underwood's Hospital is said to be the "man with the microscopic eye." Dr. Connor's wife, the former Miss Anna Belle Golden is on an all-around-the-states tour with their nine year old son, Shade, Jr. They are expected to return Sunday morning. A very important and successful operation was made at Lincoln Hospital in New York last night by Physician Edwin Lawrence Arrington. He was assisted by Dr. Warren George Keys. A diagnosis was made of the case two days ago by Dr. Jauraze Harding Taylor, and the patient was said to have a growth occurring on the brain."

"Press News—oversea—Liberia, Miss Ethel Beatrice Hayes has divorced her husband and is returning to the United States by plane. She is expected to arrive today at 2:15. No children are involved. An incident, a bit funny happened at the home of John Hendrick Moore, a prominent dentist of Louisburg, last night. The cook, an unmarried graduate of Shaw University, Miss Ivia Mae Covington, had just finished baking individual apple pies, and set them on the table to cool. Miss Covington, then goes up stairs to converse with Mrs. Moore, the former Miss Virginia Dare Hardy on tomorrow's menu. Mrs. Moore's four youngest children, deciding to taste the pies, slipped one each from the table and bit into them quickly. Wow! My what a noise. Dentist John Hendrick Moore, receiving a call, hurries home to find his wife, the former Miss Virginia D. Hardy seated with a child in each arm, one on her lap, one on her feet, and the cook, Ivia Mae, looking scaredly on. The trouble with their mouth is soon discovered and you know the results. Misses Irene Barham and Mildred Virginia Bell, bachelor girls, decided to go into business two years ago. They are now prominent pharmacists in Smithfield, North Carolina. Six months ago they decided to organize a bachelor girl's club. Six girls immediately joining were: Misses Elnora Elizabeth Bryant, Mildred Lee Lassiter, Birnisha Sally Dawley, Lottie Nolan, Nellie Lois Crowe, and Naomi Brown. Believing the nearest way to a man's heart is through his stomach, they built in a restaurant with Birnisha S. Dawley, Elnora E. Bryant and Nellie L. Crowe as cooks; Mildred L. Lassiter as overseer, and Naomi Brown as manager. Sorry to say the bachelor girls' club will die completely down within two months unless entirely new members are taken in."

"Press News—oversea—Germany, Misses Theophra A. Harris and Eva Thomas have succeeded in expanding their missionary program to include not only the masses of people but the classes as well. Berlin—Mr. Henry Franklin Leak successfully completed his experiment on "a regrowth of hair to bald head men" at the University of Berlin this morning. France—Misses Milta Elizabeth Davis, Grace Lorenia McIver and Dorothy Mae Sanders are leading models at an exquisite fashion center in Paris."

"Back to the United States—Sport News—We find Charles Macon England playing hand to hand with Jackie Robertson on the world's greatest baseball team. There are two assistant coaches for this team: Mr. Joshua Walden Levister and Mr. Lytle Wilson Hickerson, Jr. Much to our gratitude and regret Miss Mary Louise Hogan is director of the girl's basketball team at Virginia State. What has the Shaw girl's basketball team to say of that? Latest Sport News of Raleigh, North Carolina—Coach Robert Legree Hillard is working hand in hand with Coach Brutus Wilson on one of the greatest football teams of the world, the Shaw Bears of Raleigh, North Carolina. Enzelee Lovale is in charge of the girl's basketball team at Washington High of Raleigh."

"Virginia—At a small High School located near Virgilina, Virginia. You will find Mrs. Daisy Rice Boykins, fourth grade teacher, 51 pupils; Constance Aline Buffaloe eighth grade teacher, 39 pupils; Hilda Joyce Croom, second grade teacher, 67 pupils; Mattie Eleanor Dunn, sixth grade teacher, 58 pupils and Mary Agnes Hill, first grade teacher, 72 pupils. Down in Texas you'll find Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Powers, the former Annie E. Boney and her 5 sons on a rice farm. Mr. William Joseph Powers, her husband, a social worker in Florida, manages to get home once a month. The former Miss Boney has as hired hands on her farm Misses Clara Pœbles, Angeline

Patricia Collins, Willa Scener Buchanan, Doris Kathryn Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Ora Todd; Mrs. Todd is the former Miss Mary Bettie Speller."

"It is surprising to know that a woman is one of the leading figures in the production of corn in the central belt. Miss Martha Valeria Crudup, a widow, and two sons 11 and 9 years old respectively raised more than five times as much corn per acre last year than did any other farmer of that section. Her strongest rival was Miss Elizabeth Mae Floyd, also a widow of that region."

"Hollywood—Have you heard the latest? Here in Hollywood you will find Misses Daisy Dell Newkirk, C. Ernestyne Godley, and Ulisha George designing clothes for Jennifer Jones, Lena Horne and Ginger Rogers. Many of our movie stars have fear of becoming too fat. This may be attributed to the fine foods they have been eating lately. The credit, of course, goes to the cooks; Misses Carrie Lee Coker, Chelsie Hinton and Merdis Mildren Jenkins. Press News—oversea—Haiti: Miss Mary Francis Shaw is doing an excellent job in Haiti in the field of Home Economics. Misses Lucille Reaves and Pecolia Myrea Hodge are expected to join her within the next two months. Back to the United States—The Chevrolet company delivered two brand new '59 chevrolts this morning to the homes of Mrs. Bertha Maye Edwards and Annie Belle Spruiell. Their home demonstration work has been extended to include not only Warren and Franklin counties but Orange and Wake as well. In politics you will find such outstanding figures as Mr. James Ivey Bridgers, president of the International Labor Unions; Mr. Delma Burt, Jr., vice president of the International Labor Unions and Miss Madie Rugel Kearney, director of the Jointly Associations."

"Here in Raleigh you will find Rev. Christopher Columbus Gray pastoring the First Baptist Church on Wilmington Street; Rev. Thomas James Boyd, pastor of the Martin Street Baptist Church on Martin Street; and Rev. Alexander Dumas Mosely, pastor of the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church. About ten miles east of Raleigh you will find a little hut with the following words inscribed above the door, "THE MOON, STARS, and PLANETS know your secrets, learn them from the palmist, Miss Thelma Amantha Gumbs. Open at all hours." Miss Gumbs secured her fame when she foretold the marriage of Mrs. Lillie Owens Scott. Note: Miss Viola Gertrude Logan is paying the palmist great sums of money hoping her future will be foretold in the same direction. Two miles farther down the same road Rev. James Allen Nimmo is erecting a stone church. Rev. Nimmo is also pastor of one of the largest churches in Greenville. Back in Hollywood you will find Misses Flora Irene Dickerson and Myrtle Arimenthia Forrest listed as "tryouts" on one of the greatest sensation screen productions of the year, "The Farmer's Daughter." Coming east you will find Dr. Mary Elizabeth Hicks and Mabel Elizabeth Fullwood teaching History in the University of Michigan. Coming farther east you will find Dr. Lillian Doretha Lennon and Lillian Bernice Jackson teaching English at Fisk University. Going north you will find Mrs. Margaret Marie Nelson, the former Miss Margaret Boone and Mrs. Vanzola Wallace the former Miss Vanzola Bond managers of a large elaborate night club in New Jersey. The former Miss Bond, the mother of two sons and a daughter proudly boast of the fact that her husband Wm. Wallace is the only Negro player with the Notre Dame football team. The assistant coach for this team is Mr. Emmett Elliot whose wife, the former Miss Queen Ester Blackwell, is a religion instructor at Bluefield State. The dietician here is Mrs. Ernestine E. Davis Boyd, assistant dietician, Mrs. Jessie Joyner Whitted. The supervisor of all Home Economic teachers of this state is Miss Primrose Rudell Rogers."

"Down in South Carolina you will find that the former Miss Naomi Olivia Herbert has resigned as supervisor of that state's Home Economics teachers, because she feels that caring for a family of three is quiet a job. Written above the Delmo-Roco, a famous night club of South Carolina, you will find the following: "Mary Lois Johnson, Dancer and Tap-Soloist." It is interesting to know that Mr. Walter R. Keyes is principal of the Wilson High School of Florence, South Carolina, and Miss Beatrice Gwendolyn Larkins is the sociology instructor of the same school. Miss Larkins was surprised a few days ago when she found that the former Miss Margaret Harrell's 9 year-old daughter had registered as a boarding student there for the following term. Upon questioning, she found that the former Miss Harrell and her husband "Shep" had gone on a sight-seeing tour of Europe. They expect to visit in Europe the World's Greatest Millinery Shop, owned and operated by Mrs. Arletha Green White, Misses Lear Alease Trice, Lauretta Sinclair, and Doris Mae Smith. They will also visit Dr. Phyllis Marie Jeffreys Tabourne, who is head of the Educational Department in one of the greatest Universities of Europe, Miss LaNelle Martin Shields, tap-soloist in the night club "Shangrila" and Margaret Geraldine Saunders, owner of the Bluestone Restaurant in Europe. When they arrive back to the United States they are expecting to spend a month at Everette's Hotel, that is an elaborate hotel in San Francisco, California, owned and operated by Miss Gertrude Ophelia Everette. It is interesting to know that they purchased a book title The New Generation, author, Miss Bernice Wright, before leaving. They didn't know, however, that Misses Johnnie Mae Cown and Virginia Purkett were passengers of the same plane. Miss Purkett is expecting to do missionary work in France and Miss Cown's purpose is to 'learn the latest'."

"And, this folks concludes our news broadcast of today."

Slowly Clementine reaches over and Click, she turns the radio off. Meantime, Colleen has slipped out the side door to go ice skating with her husband, Andy Fields, and as for me, I'd better get dressed, because I have a movie date at 8:15.

YES, teachers are vitally important to you, and to every good citizen—yet today, as you well know, there are far from enough fully qualified teachers in our schools. What can you do to help solve the serious school-teacher shortage?

YOU CAN DO THIS!

First: Check up on educational conditions in your local schools. Second: Work with civic groups and school boards seeking to improve teachers' working and living conditions. The joint effort of forward-looking citizens can and must save this situation—for the sake of our children and our country.
